Game Description:

One player is assigned to be the "The Lone Ranger" on each hole. On the 1st hole, player in position one in the pairings will act as the "Lone Ranger". On the 2nd hole, player two in position two will be the "Lone Ranger". Same for 3rd and 4th positions. The cycle repeats throughout the rest of the round. When playing this format, you will count the "Lone Ranger's" ball as well as the best net ball of the other three players. Two balls will be counted on each hole. Golf Genius does all the score calculating.
