

QCLGA GENERAL MEETING MINUTES

December 11, 2024

Madera Club House

Executive Board

Present: Terri Bacon, Patty Harmon, Michele Gazica, Marie Cook, Debbie Riddell

Membership attendance: approximately 75 women.

Meeting called to order at 12:35 pm by Terri Bacon

President—Terri Bacon

- Terri opened the meeting by announcing that the complementary lunch being enjoyed by the membership was due to a treasury excess that began to accumulate during event cancellations necessitated by Covid 19 protocols.

Vice President—Patty Harmon

- Announced Chip in for Charity event increased participation to 180 gamers, up from 172 in 2023, and donations exceeded $14,000, a new record high.

Treasurer-Marie Cook

- 84 existing members have renewed as of December 11. Anyone not renewing by December 15 will not receive an invite to the first tournament of 2025. Marie will accept checks from members for RBCs and Southern District from those who did not already pay for them during their online renewal.
- Marie announced that she and Debbie Riddell collaborated to enable QCLGA to accept credit card payments starting in 2025.
- Marie announced Hole-in-One entries can be paid in the future through the AG Golf registration and/or renewal process the same way RBCs and Southern District are paid.

New Members – Janet Johnson

- Janet reported there were nine new members since October, and she introduced new members from 2023 and 2024 who were in attendance.

Awards

- Kathy Brogdon announced State Medallion winners Mickey Zimny (low net) and Jane Gibson (low gross). Mickey is unable to represent our club in the State Medallion Tournament, so Phyllis O'Brien, who lost to Mickey in a playoff, will represent the club along with Jane Gibson. Any QCLGA member can be in the QCLGA State Medallion competition if she completes two of the four qualifier playdates.

- Terri Bacon presented Hole-in-One awards to Radie Haytak (in absentia) and Stacia Sower. Both women received a certificate, a pin, a hat clip hole-in-one ball marker and a towel embroidered with “the hole.” Since Stacia made her hole-in-one during league play, and she was enrolled in the Hole-in-One pot, she also received $300.
- Phyllis O’Brien and Elizabeth Cornell presented awards for Ringers, Birdies and Chip-ins. Total payouts for RBCs in the 2024 season, which ran from December 1 to November 30, and included all postable Thursday scores, was over $1600. Results for Ringers available on the QCLGA website.
- Terri Bacon handed out awards for Eagles: three for Terry Nicholson and one to herself.

Changing of Officers and Committees

- Terri Bacon thanked outgoing committee members and officers, and introduced new officers and committee members. Those members in attendance received a list of contact information for officers and committees. This information can also be found on the website.

1:35 Meeting dissolved, rather than adjourned, due to cookie exchange chaos.
